Notes

- As a parent or godparent you should ask yourself:
 - Are you prepared to the best of your ability to give the child a Christian upbringing within the family of Christ's Church?
 - Will you help the child to be regular in public worship and in prayer, not only by your teaching but also by your example and your prayers?
 - Will you encourage the child in due time to come to Confirmation and Communion?
- It is usual to have three godparents, two of the same sex as the child and one of the opposite sex, but to have one godfather and one godmother is sufficient.
 - Parents may be godparents to their own children, provided that the child has at least one other godparent.
 - Church law requires that godparents should be baptized and confirmed, but the requirement of confirmation can be relaxed in certain cases
- It is preferable that a child should be baptised at his parish church or the church his parents normally attend.
